Joint "Pop In Session" with the Independent Review Panel

An inaugural "Pop In Session" was held by KCC on the 24th April 2018 in Kerry Village Hall in conjunction with the Independent Review Panel. Taking into account the lack of notice time given, the session was judged to be a success; consequently, it was decided to attempt arranging 3-4 sessions a year. With the view to creating a more relaxed atmosphere, it was decided to arrange the next venue in The Herbert Arms public house in Kerry ¾ hour before the September Council meeting. It is felt that Council is more approachable in a less formal environment and a chat over a drink is likely to attract a greater interaction between Council and residents.

SARN NEWSLETTER Edition 83 – July/August 2018

SARN COFFEE MORNING GROUP -

May and June has seen a great deal of activity for members of the Coffee Morning.

14th May saw members, in convoy, travelling to Derwen Garden Centre where cakes and morning coffee had been laid on which was enjoyed by everyone who attended.

28th May: Members held a plant sale in the Village Hall and raised funds of approximately £20.

11th June: Pam and Len Watkins opened their garden to members and visitors who again were served with coffee, tea and a selection of homemade cakes in the gardens. Cakes were donated by members and approximately £55 was raised; this will go towards subsidising further trips.

The next trip will be to Barmouth on 9th July, cost is £10 for members and £15 for non-members. Pick up the coach at Sarn Village Hall car park at 9.00am. Further details can be obtained from Merle on 01686 670631 or Pam on 01686 670432.

The Sarn Coffee Morning meets on the second and fourth Monday of every month at Sarn Village Hall at 10.00am to 12 noon. All are welcome.

Next meetings: 23rd July, 13th August & 27th August
